2017 annual conference scholarships

The Minnesota Association of Museums (MAM) will award a limited number of scholarships to help MAM members attend the 2017 conference. Held September 27–29 in Ely, Minnesota, this conference is a wonderful opportunity to network with museum professionals, hear from thought leaders, and gain meaningful professional development. Scholarships cover the registration fee for the conference.

requirements

Must be a current MAM member AND a first-time attendee of a MAM conference.

to apply

Please submit the following materials to the Minnesota Association of Museums via email or mail by August 31, 2017.

- > Letter of recommendation from a supervisor or colleague
- > Letter of intent from the applicant
- > This completed form

note

Preference will be given to emerging museum professionals (those who have worked fewer than five years in the field), students (copy of valid student ID and/or proof of registration recommended), small museum professionals (budgets under $500K), professionals outside of the Twin Cities area, or a representative of an underserved population.
